270 Will Get Degrees At Summer Commencement

Western will award degrees to approximately 270 students at its summer commencement exercises on Friday, August 5, at 8:00 p. m. CDT. The exercises will be held in the Stadium; however, in case of inclement weather, the group will be transferred to the Gymnasium.

Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, will present the commencement address.

The college reception for the graduates will be held on Thursday, August 4, in the Student Center from 4 p. m. until 5:30 p. m.

No baccalaureate services will be held this summer. Last year's decision to hold only one commencement program met with such great enthusiasm, that college officials have decided to follow the same policy again this summer.

The following is a partial list of candidates for degrees, which was released this week by the Registrar's office. Several other candidates are expected to make application for degrees within the next two weeks.

Annual KEA Conference Is Here August 7

Western and the Third District Education Association will cohost this year's KEA Leadership Conference.

The Leadership Conference is scheduled to get underway on the campus on Sunday, August 7, and will close at noon on Wednesday, August 10.

Theme for this year's Conference will be "A Better Day for Kentucky's children."

A highlight of the conference will be the Fish Fry which is held each year as a part of the Annual Conference for Superintendents which Western sponsors. The Superintendent's Conference which is usually held the second week in July will not be held this year but will be combined with the Leadership Conference.

KEA officials expect better than

Art Education Workshop Held On Hill June 22-24

Western's Art department again sponsored an Art Workshop this summer on the campus from June 22 through June 24. Working with Ruth Hines Temple, head of the Art department, were department members Dr. E. G. Monroe, William Loy, and Stanley Caywood.

Under the theme of "The Larger World," the Workshop presented the value of visual materials in helping to build a larger cultural world for the teacher and a larger learning world for the child. Areas of exploration included the art world, the social studies world, the literary world, and the theatre world.

Gibson
Dr. Raymond C. Gibson, Professor of Higher Education in the School of Education, Indiana University, and Western graduate, spoke during the opening session which was held during the regular Chapel hour on Wednesday, June 22. Dr. F. C. Grise, former Western dean, also participated on the morning's program.

Daniel Shindelbower, Supervisor of Art Education, Division of Instructional Services, State Department of Education, and Mrs. Mary Mars Hall, Supervisor of Certification in Teacher Education, State Department of Education, were leaders in a discussion on "A Larger World for Art in Kentucky Schools" on Wednesday afternoon.

Herman Burns
Herman F. Burns, art director for the Sunday School Board, spoke to the group on "The Larger World of Book Illustration—Children's Books" on Thursday morning.

Another phase of the Workshop' program included a panel discussion on "Finding the Larger World of the Social Studies for teacher and Child." Panel members in-

Summer Theatre 1960 Activities Get Underway

Western's Summer Theatre '60 got off to an early start with its organizational meeting on June 13. Officers for the summer were elected as follows: Houston E. Hatler, President; Cecil Mabe, Business Manager; Pat Patterson, Secretary; and Tom Roll, Public Relations Representative.

Director Russell H. Miller discussed the possibilities for activities of the project, the Executive board decided on three productions, the play reading committee selected Emlyn Williams' "Night Must Fall," mystery melodrama, "The Importance of Being Earnest," Oscar Wilde's classic farce comedy, and "Thorn-son Wilder's all-time favorite, "Our Town."

A field trip scheduled for July 6, Friday evening, to see "The Stephen Foster Story," in Bardstown was agreed upon. Reservations were to be made at Mr. Miller's office by the deadline, July 1, for the expedition which will be made by chartered bus to return after the show Friday evening. Other possible field trips were presented — to Nashville to see the Circle Players' summer show or the Nashville Community Playhouse productions.

On Thursday evening, June 23, the Summer Theatre '60 contributed a program of Outdoor Theatre to the larger World project of the Art Workshop. Mr. Miller discussed the origin and development of the outdoor drama movement as the "larger

Thirteen Join Faculty For Summer Session

Thirteen special staff members joined the Western faculty for the eight-week summer term which opened on June 13 and closes August 5, according to an announcement by Dr. Kelly Thompson, president of the college.

Two regular members of the faculty also joined the staff at the opening of the summer school, and a regular member of the faculty will remain on the staff in-

The 1960 fall semester will open on September 12 as Western begins its 54th year of operation. Freshman days will usher in the official beginning of the first term of the 1960-61 school year. A general assembly will begin the orientation activities at 8 a. m. on Monday, September 12, in Van Meter Auditorium.

Upperclassmen
Upperclassmen will register on Wednesday, and Thursday, September 14 and 15, with classes beginning on Friday, September 16.

Students desiring to enter Western for the first time may secure application blanks from the office of Registrar Dero Downing. The college catalog and other additional information may be obtained by writing to President E. Kelly Thompson, Western Kentucky State College, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

General Assembly
During the general assembly period on Monday morning, freshmen will be given general counselling concerning the purposes and educational opportunities offered at Western. There will also be group testing as a part of the freshman orientation program. Following the testing period, freshmen will have counselling sessions regarding the making of their individual programs.

Climaxing the two days' activities will be a reception for the freshmen in the Paul L. Garrett Student Center. This reception, annually given for the freshmen students, will offer an opportunity for the new students to become better acquainted with each other and with their teachers.

Courses of Study
In addition to its fine teacher-training program, Western offers courses of study in all areas

Western Gets $3,700 NSF Grant

Western has been awarded a grant of $3,750 by the National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C., for support of a Conference on Teacher Preparation in Science, according to an announcement by Dr. Alan T. Waterman, director of the National Science Foundation.

The conference will be held in Louisville, on Sept. 29, 30, and Oct. 1 and will be under the direction of Dr. Kelly Thompson, president of Western.

The conference will be concerned with science curricula for science teacher certification. Science professors in Kentucky colleges and universities and representatives from the State Department of Education, selected school systems, and other state agencies concerned with the preparation of high school science teachers will attend the conference.

80 Students In High School Institute

Eighty high school students are participating in the summer science institute again on Western's campus this summer. The Institute, financed by a grant from the National Science Foundation, is under the direction of Dr. Tate C. Page, head of the Department of Education. Dr. C. P. McNally, head of the Chemistry department, and Dr. Allan G. Anderson, Department of mathematics, are serving as associate directors.

Last summer Western inaugurated the first program of this Foundation. The grant from the Foundation of $76,000 provides funds for an increase of the number of participants from last year's 62 to the 80 in this summer's program. Stipends covering room and board expense were awarded those chosen to participate in the program.

The program is designed for those students who have completed the junior year in high school and who have outstanding qualifications for advance study in

Judy Moore Named New Dean Of Women

Heading the list of faculty additions and changes for the 1960-61 school year is the promotion of Miss Judy Moore from assistant to the dean of students to dean of women.

Miss Moore, who graduated from Western in 1958, received the master's degree from George Peabody College for Teachers in 1958. While at Western, Miss Moore was editor of the Talisman, elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and was a member of the President's Student Advisory Council.

Nine New Members
Nine new faculty members have been added to the staff since second semester of last year. Included in this group are: Dr.

Charles Ambrose; Paul B. Cook; Dr. William R. Hourigan; Herbert Miller; and Dr. John Scarborough.

Dr. Ambrose will join the faculty of the Education department on September 1. He has been director of pupil personnel in Lexington schools since 1950. In 1957 he was awarded the doctorate degree by the University of Kentucky, and he was also received the master of arts degree from Kentucky in 1947. Dr. Ambrose is a graduate of Transylvania College.

He and his wife, the former Mildred G. Redmon, have one daughter, Elizabeth Paul, age 10. Joining the Training School fac-

By Mary Ruth Grise
During a year of Russian and American satellites, Presidential tours, and Summit talks that didn't last, Western and those associated with it have made history of their own.

As we view the past year of 1959-60 at Western Kentucky State College, we note events that mark personal achievement — achievement for Western: concerts and dramatic presentations; contests and honors won by and for the school; students recognized for leadership ability and scholastic proficiency. We mark the planning of new buildings and the construction of others; new programs and curricula planned and put into action, and new faces on the Hill. We even had our own walk-out — not on a Summit conference, of course, but perhaps basketball games are little Summits!

Enrollment

As the 1959-60 school year began, Western announced its largest enrollment ever with 2,918 students on the Hill. "Inherit the Wind" was planned as Players' first production of the year; and twenty-three new members were added to Western's faculty. Cheerleaders, Diane Robinson, Sandra Jogoe, Roberta Johnson, Martha Johnson, Rachel Chadwick Roll and Janet Brewer began leading yells for the Topper football team.

As Homecoming time rolled around, 7,000 people saw Alice Chumley crowned as Homecoming queen. The first honorary fraternity in Western's history was organized as Mu Lambda chapter of Alpha Psi Omega dramatics fraternity. Tom Covington was chosen to lead the freshman class; and Sandy Burrah, Margaret Darraugh, and Diane Howard were elected as ROTC sponsors.

At the same time Norman Childs and Pat Richards were chosen to lead the freshman and sophomore classes respectively. Thirty-three seniors were elected to Who's Who for 1960.

The Topper footballers blasted Eastern 14 to 7 at the same time that Billy Booker, Ron Downard, and Herb Wasson earned berths on the weekly honor roll of the O.V.C. Meanwhile, the senior class was fighting a battle of its own which resulted in a special election for senior officers with Ron Sheffer being named as class president.

Three Western Debaters were named outstanding speakers in the annual Western Kentucky Invitational Debate Tournament here; the Industrial Arts Building was renovated; and Western faculty members, Dr. T. O. Hall and Dr. D. K. Wilgus released two new books of which they were the authors.

Science Grant

Western was once again awarded a grant by the National Science Foundation, this one for $75,000, as the new chimneys, installed by the College Heights Foundation, rang out over the campus for the first time. With Western's full admission to the National Association of Schools of Music, also came plans for the annual Military Ball where Carolyn Turner was crowned queen. As the basketball season opened, the Toppers set a new record as they blasted Union University with a score of 123-71.

As the new state administration went into office, six Western grads were named to state posts by Governor Bert Combs. With the winning of the Sugar Bowl championship, came also Coach E. A. Diddle's 700th win of his career. Two fast talking young men were named winners of the Ogden and Robinson Oratorical Contests. Their names—Bob Schneider and Charles Wale. During the week when Marilyn Ashby was selected as Western's Mountain Laurel representative, the now-famous Western-Eastern game began and lasted only 13 minutes!

Another National Science grant brought Western's total over the past 22 months to $232,116, while Anne Shaver and Martha Clayton took top honors in the AAUW and SNEA Oratorical Contests respectively.

Players

Western Player's production of Much Ado About Nothing was followed immediately by plans for Ninotchka, while the Topper basketball men were busy winning their eighth OVC net crown, and earning themselves a berth in the NCAA playoffs at Lexington. New plans and funds of a $1,500,000 science building were announced, and a mock legislature was inaugurated on the Hill.

Returning from the NCAA playoffs at Lexington, 1,000 Western students were stranded by the heaviest snowstorm in many years which resulted in the first dismissal of classes for weather reasons in 9 years. During the annual observance of National Library Week, President Thompson and Miss Margie Helm were listed for the first time in Who's Who in America.

The Acappella choir left the Hill to tour southwestern Kentucky, at the same time the College Heights Herald was awarded a Medalist Rating by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. A special NEA workshop brought many distinguished visitors to the campus as plans were made for the 386th KEA breakfast, which was to be attended by 800 Westerners.

With springtime in the air, Western Players planned a production of Picnic as a mock government was formed for the first time in "Vet Village."

With the crowning of Talisman king and queen, Jude Talbott and Rachael Chadwick Roll, the last weeks of school sped toward the commencement activities at which Governor Bert T. Combs and Dr. L. E. Linger spoke to the 270 graduates. During this time Jim Shoggs and Tom Covington were chosen to head the Herald staff for 1960-61 as editor and business manager. Chloe Ann Cooper and Patsy Byrd were also named as editor and assistant editor for 1961 edition of the Talisman.

So the year has drawn to a close with many fine memories of people, work, friendship, and education that have made up the year of 1959-60 on Western's campus. With the promise of even greater days to come, we can feel only joy over the days past and expectancy for the future.

Westerner Enjoys His Job

The stereotyped man is never without a car; a line, which doesn't attract fish; and his pipe, procured for peace; but Bill Strode is never without his camera.

Bill, who is presently employed by the Courier-Journal, graduated from Western last year with an AB degree.

The life of a photographer is exciting and different every day. When the assignment comes, the wheels turn, and where or when they stop no one knows, and least of all the photographer. For instance there was the time Bill was assigned to take pictures of Misses Maine and Massachusetts.

The beauty queens were in Louisville to appear at a disabled veteran's convention. While he was taking their pictures he was told by the girls that they had yet to see the town. Feeling sorry for the young ladies, the public relation's man for the convention, gave Bill money and suggested that he take them to the Amphitheatre to see the Gordon McRae Show.

He sometimes transgresses from the realm of the lucky to the ridiculous. The latter carried him to a special plane designed for taking ariel shots. At a moment when he had his camera focused below and the major portion of his body extending out of the window, the plane did a bank. This left Mr. Strode hanging out the plane with nothing between him and the ground except a safety belt. But as he was concentrating on the picture, he was not startled to any great degree. But he did term it as, "The funniest feeling that I've ever had."

Through his experience working for the publicity department of Western, taking pictures for the Talisman and the College Heights Herald, Bill has learned many hints for taking pictures.

His present profession began at Eastern high school (near Louisville) as a hobby. There he belonged to the camera club. In his sophomore year of college he began taking pictures to make money.

After a few months working for the Courier-Journal, he plans to attend a photo-journalism school. He has yet to make up his mind between, the Art Center in Los Angeles or the Rochester Institute of Technology in New York. Then he hopes to work for a magazine or a newspaper.

One can see why this young man has become such a close companion with his camera. It continually makes him friends, with celebrities, pretty girls, and even criminals. Though he might occasionally get into a precarious situation comparable to almost falling from an airplane, if he had a motto it would surely be, "Try the snap of a camera for the spice of life."

By Mary Ruth Grise

A summer school session is like no other period of the school year. There is time for all the extras that slip so easily by during the regular terms.

We note with interest the Art Workshop with its many fine opportunities for enriching experiences. The work of the Summer Theatre group, which brings laughs, tears, and suspense with its varied offerings.

Certainly the work of the two science and mathematics institutes is adding much to the campus life in general. Specifically, the many outstanding lecturers who are brought here as a part of this program add much to the growing atmosphere of this summer term.

We cannot forget the more leisurely pace of classroom and study activities that gives the opportunity for deeper and more extensive exploration into the mysteries of English grammar and chemical formulae.

Certainly as we look around us we can congratulate ourselves for having the foresight to make ourselves a part of Western for the summer. Days may be hot and nights only too short, but summer school on the Hill is a pleasant experience!

Hilltopics

With the announcement of the Fall Semester registration plans, we might begin to feel that the summer is almost over and the beginning of another school term just a short time away. It is!

A Plea For Greatness

This is not a plea, for greatness needs no pleading words for its continued existence. This is, however, a challenge to each Western student for inspiration and cultural advancement.

We as Western students stand in the shadow of excellence and greatness here on College Heights. Outstanding authorities in many varied fields labor diligently to impart to us a golden gift labeled knowledge, coupled with necessary understanding. Both of these multiplied together give us wisdom.

We have but to walk in the foot paths of this greatness to realize its importance and feel awe in its presence. Yet we should do more than this. We must listen, look, and learn. Application rather than mere observation should be our watchword.

We stand at the gateway of the key to the preservation of our democratic way of life and the freedom of our own souls, from the chains of ignorance and indifference.

Western offers us this key. Unlock the door to new adventures, opportunities, and challenges. Let's adopt a good, perhaps forgotten proverb:

"We can if we will."

WESTERN ALUMNI—Outgoing Western Alumni President, Lee Robertson, and the newly-elected Alumni President, Charles Ruter, are shown talking with the new member of the Board of Directors of the Association, David Montgomery, after the Alumni Luncheon, which was held just prior to the June Commencement.

Ruter Will Head Alumni

At the annual alumni luncheon, held in the dining room of the Paul L. Garrett Student Center on June 2, Charles Ruter was officially installed as president of the Western Alumni Association, and David Montgomery as member of the board of directors.

Ruter is assistant principal of Eastern High school in Jefferson County. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education, granted by Western in 1946. He was also awarded a Master's degree in education by the college in 1947.

As an undergraduate, Ruter was a member of the basketball team of 1942-43, which participated in the final round of the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Garden in New York City. He entered the service in 1943, where he served for three years.

Ruter has been active in alumni work and is currently president of the Falls Cities chapter of the Alumni Association.

As president of the Western Alumni Association, he succeeds Mr. Lee Robertson, now executive director of the association.

Ruter is married to the former Ruth Wise, who graduated from Western in 1947 with a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education. She holds the Master of Arts degree from Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. Ruter is principal teacher in the Jefferson county school system.

Mr. David Montgomery, will replace Mr. Amos Stone on the board of directors, Mr. Stone having completed a four-year term in this post.

Montgomery received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Western in 1935 with a major in history, and the Master's degree in administration and supervision in 1953.

Mr. Montgomery began his teaching career in the McLean county schools prior to his graduation from college. For several years after graduation he was teacher and principal in the Metcalfe county school system. He later went to Barren County as director of pupil personnel. For the past twelve or fifteen years, he has been principal of the Temple Hill High school of that same county.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery have one child, a daughter, Judith, who will enter Western as a freshman this fall.

AUDIO-VISUAL WORKSHOP July 26 — July 28, 1960

Sponsored by the Division of Teacher Education, under the direction of Dr. Tate C. Page. Mr. James Carpenter and his Audio-Visual Aids class are acting as coordinators. The program will consist of visiting consultants, displays by Audio-Visual Class, and displays by various companies which sell Audio-Visual equipment and materials.

ulty will be Paul L. Cook, 1958 Western graduate. Mr. Cook will also teach world geography, world history, and American history.

A native of Horse Cave, Mr. Cook was awarded the M. A. degree by Western in 1959. He has taught the past two years in the Fort Knox High school. He taught at Caverna High school prior to joining the Fort Knox system.

While an undergraduate at Western, Mr. Cook was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He also served as president of the History club and was a member of the President's Student Advisory Council.

Mr. Cook and his wife, the former Rose West, have one daughter.

Dr. William Hourigan

Dr. William Hourigan joined the faculty at the beginning of the summer term in the Department of agriculture. He came to Western from Ohio State University where in May, 1960, he was awarded the Ph. D. degree in agronomy, specializing in soil chemistry.

A native of Marion county, Dr. Hourigan received the B. S. degree from the University of Kentucky in 1952 and the M. S. degree from Kentucky in 1956.

He has served as assistant County Agent in Calloway and Washington counties. His wife is the former Marlene Swann, Murray.

Holbert M. Miller has been appointed director of the new residence hall for men which is being completed on the campus this summer.

Mr. Miller, who was named as the outstanding industrial arts major in the class of 1960, received the bachelor's degree from Western in June. A native of Hart county, he graduated from Hart Memorial High school in 1951, served two years with the U. S. Army in Alaska, and worked for two years prior to entering Western.

The new dormitory director and his wife, the former Goldie Bastin, have one son, Mark Kimble, age 18 months.

Dr. John Scarbrough joined the Department of education at the beginning of the summer term. He has served in Alabama high schools as classroom teacher, coach, assistant principal, and principal. Prior to his coming to Western, Dr. Scarbrough had been principal of the Greenville High School since 1955.

In 1957 Dr. Scarbrough was awarded the doctorate degree by Columbia University. He received the Master of Arts degree from the University of Alabama in 1949, and was graduated from Troy State College, Troy, Alabama, in 1941.

Dr. Scarbrough served with the armed forces from 1942 until 1946 during World War II. He returned to duty in 1951 as an instructor with the U. S. Air Force at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

He is married and has two children.

Eighty-Four Participate' In Band Camp

Western was host to eighty-four high school musicians during the week of June 20-24 as they participated in a summer band program.

They composed the summer All - Third District Education Association band. The band was sponsored by the Southern Kentucky Music Educators Association.

The week's program was climaxed by an outdoor concert in the public square in downtown Bowling Green on Friday evening, June 24.

Dean Dowdy, band director from Madisonville High school, was the guest conductor for the concert. Rehearsals during the week were under Dowdy's direction with assistance from the band directors throughout the district.

Cecil Kerrick, band director at Bowling Green High school, was general chairman for the week's activities. He is also president of the SKMEA.

Bowling Green, Warren County, Franklin - Simpson, Campbells-ville, Hartford, Leitchfield, Caneyville, Beaver Dam, Central City, Greensburg, Caverna, and Greenville high schools were represented.

Summer Theatre Activities

world" of the theatre. The program included demonstrations of outdoor theatre with scenes from Mr. Miller's own project "Giants Lie Sleeping" and songs from "The Stephen Foster Story." The cast for the occasion included Tom Roll, Jane Lovell Pfingston, Carroll Hart, Eddie Pfingston, Warren Kessler, Cecil Mabe, Ted Urban, Houston E. Hatler, Charlie Fleener, and Mary Charles Hibbs, with square dance sequence and a glee club unit composed of members of the Summer Theatre '60.

A week of auditioning has provided casts for the three major productions. In the first play, "Night Must Fall," Tom Roll, Muriel Hawkes, Marcia Jackson, Patsy Gray, Mary Oaken, Houston E. Hatler, Paul Wilder, Charles Logsdon, and Romanza Oliphant will be seen. Presentation is set for July 13, 14, Hatler and Warren Kessler are assigned as assistant directors. Sherrill Scanlon is script assistant.

"The Importance of Being Ernest," the second production is scheduled for July 20, 21, 22, O. V. Clark, Paul Nuzzo, P. A. Lenk, Lou Lanier, Betty Rose Milliken, Carroll Hart, Mary Charles Hibbs, Ted Urban, and Brank McKinsey are included in its cast. Mrs. M. L. Pruitt, Ted Urban, and Brank McKinsey are assistant directors.

"Our Town" with its large cast group includes most of the personnel of the Summer Theatre group. It is scheduled as last of the productions, set for July 27, 28, 29. Ted Urban heads the cast as the Stage Manager. The cast list includes Cecil Mabe, Ed Pfingston, Patsy Gray, Lorine Cooksey, Charlie Logsdon, Sherrill Scanlon, Carroll Hart, Dinah Funk, Warren Kessler, Houston E. Hatler, Sherry A. Hines, Paul Wilder, Kay Niman, Brank McKinsey, Sylvia Middleton, Tom Roll, Maruice Utley, Jane Lovell Pfingston, Jane Hardwick, Mary Charles Hibbs, Romanza Oliphant, Lou Lanier, Terrie Gaston, Betty Lou Porter, Linda Cebbe, Gail Bruce, Anna J. Dunnagan, and Nancy Bush. Maurice Utley and Tom Roll will serve as assistant directors on this production.

Just as the June 23d program was an initiation of "The Old Fort Theatre," the first outdoor theatre project at Western, the use of the new auditorium in the Perry Snell Hall for the summer plays will be an innovation. The new location offers a challenge to directoral imagination and acting ingenuity. It should provide an interesting experience in experimental theatre. Snell Hall has several advantages over the old Van Meter stage Arena, used in other summers-proscenium stage, more and better seating, a cooler place to play or enjoy the play, and unlimited parking space adjacent to the theatre with no steps to climb to reach the auditorium.

mentary teacher in the Hopkinsville school system.

Roy Smith, assistant principal of the Owensboro school system, will join the staff on July 11 to teach a special course entitled "Core Curriculum". The special course will finish on August 5.

Mrs. Edward R. Ward, librarian in the H. C. Clays Mill School, Lexington, has joined the Department of library science.

Lloyd B. Claycomb, English teacher in the Irvington, Ky. high school, joined the Training School staff.

Bobby Leisure, an honor member of the 1960 spring graduating class who was outstanding in physics, is with the Department of physics.

The two regular faculty members joining the staff at the opening of the summer school are Dr. William R. Hourigan in the Department of agriculture and Dr. John A. Scarborough in the Department of education.

William Eckhardt will remain with the Department of Psychology which he joined as a regular member at the beginning of the 1959-60 second semester in February, 1960.

Mrs. Mary Helen Lawson, Miss Ann Duncan, and Mrs. Bonnie Wilkerson will assist in the Library while doing graduate study during the summer term.

Also participating on the workshop program were: Dr. W. R. McNeill, superintendent, Bowling Green city schools; Mrs. Arline Rawlins, art supervisor, Bowling Green city schools; Thomas Hal Gomer, art department head, Baltimore, Md., public schools; and Herman Lowe, Bowling Green.

Outdoor Drama

A highlight of the Workshop was the presentation of an outdoor drama by members of Western's Summer Theatre '60 under the direction of Russell H. Miller. The drama was presented in the Old Fort area of the campus between the Administration building and the Library.

Several selections from "Giants Lie Sleeping," a regional drama of the Green river valley, written by Mr. Miller, and some scenes from "The Stephen Foster Story" were the program presented by the group.

Displays

Extensive displays of art work were on exhibit during the week, high school and elementary work, travel posters and materials, and prints of the masters.

Other Western faculty members who participated in various phases of the activities were: James A. Carpenter, director of the Training school; Margie Helm director of library services; Sara Tyler, head librarian; Vera Grinstead, Library Science department; Dean R. L. Cravens; Dr. Willson Wood, head of the English department; Dr. Earl A. Stone, head of the Music department; Mrs. Elizabeth Walz, hostess of the Faculty House; and Mrs. Herman Lowe, Training School.

Core Curriculum Course Offered Here For First Time

Education 372, a course entitled Core Curriculum, is being offered for the first time by Western during the 1960 summer session. The class will begin on July 11 and continue until August 5 with a double period of instruction each day.

Roy Smith, assistant superintendent of the Owensboro school system, will teach the class. Smith has had extensive experience with the Core Curriculum having supervised the program in the Owensboro schools for the past 10 years.

The summer session at Western opened on Monday, June 13, and will close on Friday, August 5.

Information concerning the new course may be obtained by writing Dr. Tate C. Page, head of the Department of education at Western.
